

For Arizona's Children

Prop 300 will deny childcare to children who are American citizens.

Current law already requires that children must be citizens to receive a childcare subsidy. This proposition strips American children of their rights.

Prop 300 will deny access to higher education to successful youth who can contribute to the economic growth of our state.

Even if students have lived in Arizona most of their lives and graduated from Arizona high schools, they will be denied in-state university tuition making higher education unaffordable to many deserving students.

Prop 300 will deny hard working adults access to basic adult education programs.

Adult education programs throughout the state serve 35,000 people. Adult basic education is critical for developing the adult workforce and preparing parents to better help their children succeed in school.

For Arizona's Children

Prop 300 will deny childcare to children who are American citizens.

Current law already requires that children must be citizens to receive a childcare subsidy. This proposition strips American children of their rights.

Prop 300 will deny access to higher education to successful youth who can contribute to the economic growth of our state.

Even if students have lived in Arizona most of their lives and graduated from Arizona high schools, they will be denied in-state university tuition making higher education unaffordable to many deserving students.

Prop 300 will deny hard working adults access to basic adult education programs.

Adult education programs throughout the state serve 35,000 people. Adult basic education is critical for developing the adult workforce and preparing parents to better help their children succeed in school.